O our Lady of Guadalupe, mystical rose, make intercession for Holy Church, protect the Sovereign Pontiff, help all those who invoke thee in their necessities, and since thou art the ever Virgin Mary and Mother of the true God, obtain for us from thy most holy Son the grace of keeping our faith, sweet hope in the midst of bitterness of life, burning charity and the precious gift of final perseverance.

Our meeting has been moved to Wednesday, September 7th at 6:30 PM in St. Joseph's Hall. Thanks to all who helped with the Ladies K.C. State Meeting, held on August 20th in St. Jane's Hall. The council received high praise for the chicken dinners. There were 25 members and their family, who attended the Quarterly Mass on August 21st. A great turn-out, thanks to all.

What a great show of solidarity and support for the quarterly Knights' mass held on August 21st. Not only did we fill the reserved seating, but there were fellow Knights scattered throughout the whole of St. Jane's. This show of commitment is precisely what is lacking when it comes to first Friday adoration and benediction. A commitment to our faith is not only acted upon every Sunday, or quarterly, but rather every occasion that is presented in which we are given the opportunity to glorify God. First Fridays are opportunities presented to us. How will you respond? As Father Jeffery commented on in his homily on August 28th, taking advantage of the frequent reception of sacraments makes us grow in holiness by opening the door of grace to us. All too infrequently do we make use of the sacrament of Reconciliation. Please consider the importance of this sacrament and its role as a means of growing in your love for God.

The statue of Our Lady of Fatima is now in my possession. If you are interested in having her stay in your home for a period of time, let me know and we can arrange it.

Finally, the Wednesday Breaking of the Word meeting continues on. Each week the number of Knights attending goes up. We start at 7:00 pm and end at 7:30 pm. A half an hour a week given of your time to prepare yourself for the reception of the Word of God on Sunday, is a small price to pay for the riches God will bestow on you with his grace.

God's peace, Brothers,

Jeff

Why Join the Knights of Columbus?

Imagine being part of an organization that fills your heart and your mind with the joy of giving to others and the feeling that comes with making a difference.

Knights are Catholic men, 18 years of age and older, who are committed to making their community a better place, while supporting their Church. Being a Knight is more than camaraderie; it is being involved with your community; it is supporting your local Catholic Church, while enhancing your own faith; it is about protecting and enhancing your family life.

Brother Knights, ask your friends, neighbors, relatives, fellow co- workers or anybody who might be interested.

WE ARE THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Brother Knights, I am working on the following family activities: Family Picnic,Tailgate Party for a Saints Away Game(probably best for a Divisional Foe, like Atlanta),and a Fishing Rodeo. I was anticipating a Fishing Rodeo for the Lock #1 area of the Bogue Chitto Refuge(great freshwater fishing)but the recent Temple-Inland discharge may have fouled up that area and I will check on it but we may have to move our base of operations and maybe a Lake Pontchartrain Fishing Rodeo may be a better idea. I have found some willing redfish out at the Causeway lately and the Lake is making a remarkable recovery from the Spillway discharge. I have a contact that works for the Federal Wildlife Management Department and if the Lock #1 area is fishable,freshwater fishing in the Spring may be the ticket.

Sir Knights,

Our next assembly meeting is on Thursday September 22nd in St. Joseph’s Hall starting at 6:00 p.m. with dinner, the Rosary and the meeting. Please mark your calendars.

I would like to thank all the Sir Knights who participated in the Feast of St. Jane Mass on August 12th.

Don’t miss your chance to become a 4th Degree Knight. Please don't hesitate to call me if you need any additional information or see me at the council meeting to fill out the paper work to get things moving. Stand up and be a Patriotic Knight of the Fourth degree.

Vivat Jesus,
Steve Hart
Faithful Navigator

Our next meeting will be Thursday September 15, 2011 in St. Joseph Hall at 7:00 p.m.

On August 20, we hosted the LLAA State Meeting. Our meeting was a total success. The Ladies and Knights helped to make it a success. I would like to thank all the Knights for their hard work. The lunch was spectacular and everyone loved it. I was told by a few of the ladies that lunch was the best they had at a meeting in a long time. I appreciate everything that the Knights did to make us look good.

I would like to thank all of the ladies that helped with everything. Everyone worked very hard and I appreciate it very much. I was so proud to be part of the KayCee Auxiliary, the ladies took control and did what they do best. I just can’t say enough.
A big “Thank you” to everyone.

Hope everyone has a good Labor Day.

God Bless You.

In being better able to fight the culture of Death it would be of great help to understand one of the roots of such a culture... a quote from Pope Pious XII would be helpful and then an article from Zenith in May of 2004 from Blessed John Paul II using the very same quote of Pious XII. We as Knights must do every thing in our power to follow and promote the Holy Father’s teaching as we try to bring a culture of Life back into our society.....“The sin of the twentieth century is the loss of the sense of sin,” declared Pope Pius XII on October 26, 1946

Loss of Sense of Sin Needs Urgent Attention, Says Pope

Appeals to U.S. Bishops to Promote Sacrament of Penance

VATICAN CITY, MAY 14, 2004 (Zenit.org).- John Paul II lamented the loss of the sense of sin in the world as he urged a group of U.S. bishops to promote the sacrament of penance.

Addressing the bishops of California, Nevada and Hawaii, who are on their five-yearly visit to Rome, the Pope said that the "courage to face the crisis of the loss of the sense of sin, to which I alerted the whole Church early in my pontificate, must be addressed today with particular urgency."

In his 1984 apostolic exhortation "Reconciliatio et Paenitentia," the Holy Father warned that "the loss of the sense of sin is a form or fruit of the negation of God: not only of the atheist, but also of the secularist."

This phenomenon implies a paradox. "While the effects of sin abound -- greed, dishonesty and corruption, broken relationships and exploitation of persons, pornography and violence -- the recognition of individual sinfulness has waned," he said.

"In its place a disturbing culture of blame and litigiousness has arisen which speaks more of revenge than justice and fails to acknowledge that in every man and woman there is a wound which, in the light of faith, we call original sin," John Paul II lamented.

"Sin is an integral part of the truth about the human person. To recognize oneself as a sinner is the first and essential step in returning to the healing love of God," he said.

"Given this reality, the bishop's duty to indicate the sad and destructive presence of sin, both in individuals and in communities, is in fact a service of hope," the Pope said.

"Far from being something negative, it strengthens believers to abandon evil and embrace the perfection of love and the fullness of Christian life," he added.

"Let us boldly announce that indeed we are not the sum total of our weaknesses and failures! We are the sum of the Father's love for us, and capable of becoming the image of his Son!" he told the U.S. bishops.

"The lasting peace and harmony so longed for by individuals, families and society can only be won through that conversion which is a fruit of mercy and constituent of genuine reconciliation," the Holy Father said. "As bishops you have the difficult yet satisfying duty of promoting the true Christian understanding of reconciliation."

"Indeed mercy constitutes the fundamental content of the messianic message of Christ and the constitutive power of his mission and thus can never be set aside in the name of pragmatism," he continued.

"As pastors of your flock it is with this merciful love -- never a mere sense of favor -- that you too must reach down to every prodigal son, to every human misery, and above all to every form of moral misery, to sin," John Paul II said.

The Holy Father concluded by encouraging the bishops to promote the sacrament of penance, "the only ordinary way for the faithful to reconcile themselves with God and the Church."

"Though it cannot be denied that the profound power of this sacrament is often considered today with indifference, it is also the case that young people in particular readily give testimony to the graces and transforming benefits it bestows," he said.

"I again appeal directly to you and to your priests: Arm yourselves with more confidence, creativity and perseverance in presenting it and leading people to appreciate it," he exhorted. "Time spent in the confessional is time spent in service of the spiritual patrimony of the Church and the salvation of souls."

Raising Awareness About Life Insurance

Each September since 2003 has been designated as Life Insurance Awareness Month. Like most awareness-raising campaigns, Life Insurance Awareness Month was created because there is an overwhelming lack of understanding of the product among the general public. Each year, the Life Insurance Market Research Association puts out the results from a recent survey, and unfortunately, the numbers they report continue to be discouraging.

A recent survey found that 76 percent of people polled did not have a personal financial advisor. Sixty-eight percent of that same survey group said their opinion of the current economic conditions was somewhat unfavorable or very unfavorable.

In other words, a majority of those surveyed were uncomfortable with the economy and the uncertainty it brings, yet they did not seek professional assistance. Maybe they spoke with their friends and family. Maybe they hoped the instability would go away on its own. Maybe they did not know to whom to turn.

If you fall into this category, please remember that as a member of the Knights of Columbus, you have a full-time, professional agent you can call your own. My primary responsibility is the care and service of your family's life insurance, retirement and long-term care needs. I'll answer your questions because I want your decisions to be informed ones. I want to help.

Another LIMRA statistic said 43 percent of people did not buy life insurance because they worry about "making the wrong decision." Talk with me agent, and, afterwards, you'll understand that the only wrong decision was not purchasing sooner to protect your family's future.
