President's Notes

May 2011

Dear Ladies,

We have just celebrated one of the most important Holy Days in the Catholic Church, Easter: The Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ. With His Suffering, Death and Resurrection we were given the Sacrament of the Most Holy Eucharist. Afterwards, without the Resurrection, when he was on the road and broke bread with two of the disciples, they would not have recognized Him as their Lord. Their eyes were then opened to recognize Him when He broke the Bread. He had told them to do this in Remembrance of Me.

Hopefully in the time leading to Easter, our hearts have been opened to that same Lord, Jesus Christ. This is a Joyful time in our church. We should also recognize the Wonderful gift given to us that long ago Easter morning, salvation. God so loved us He gave up His only Son for us. We should be so thankful to Him. Carry the Joy of salvation with you through the coming year until we are renewed once again.

I hope all of you had a Wonderful and Joyous Easter! I know I did.

Praying for you and all of your family,

Ellen Ledet, President

MAY - Meekness

Blessed are the meek, for they shall possess the earth. ~~~ Matt. 5:4

There are some characters which appear very gentle as long as everything goes well with them; but at the touch of any adversity or contradiction, they are immediately Enkindled, and begin to throw forth smoke like a volcano. Such as these may be called burning coals hidden under ashes. This is not the meekness which Our Lord aimed to teach, that He might make us like Himself. We ought to be like lilies among thorns, which, though they come from amid such sharp points, do not cease to be smooth and pliable.

~~St. Bernard

Back to Basics:

Understand Term and Whole Life Insurance

Studies have shown that life insurance is often a misunderstood product. Worse still, people are unsure where to find information on these products or are afraid to ask. As a member of this Order, you have access to me, a full-time professional life insurance agent. A large part of my role as field agent is to answer your questions and help make sure you and your family are protected.

To start, I want to give some basic information on life insurance. For some of you, this may be a refresher course, but for many a little knowledge might open your eyes.

There are two basic types of life insurance coverage: term and whole life. Term, as the name implies, covers an insured for a specific period of time. Some liken this to "renting" life insurance. In the term or "rental" period, the policy holder remains covered as long as premiums are paid. When that term expires, so does the coverage. A new policy can be purchased, but it's mostly likely the rates will increase (the policy holder isn't as young as when the first policy was obtained) and it is possible the applicant cannot be insured anymore due to health issues. If you find that term covers your immediate needs, my advice would be to establish a plan to convert that term to whole life over time.

While term insurance certainly has a place in a balanced portfolio, whole life has many advantages not offered by term. First, the coverage in place continues after the payment of premiums has stopped. Some payment periods last 10 or 20 years. A Single Premium Whole Life policy asks that you make only one payment to attain lifelong coverage. The plan you choose is based on your goals and budget, of course, but there is one that will fit these needs.

A second major advantage of whole life is the accumulation of cash values in the policy and potential for dividends. To discuss these more, and all the plans and options available to you, please contact me today.

The Funny Bone

After 50 yrs of marriage, Boudreaux & Clothide were holding a marriage seminar when someone asked:

What's the secret to your long marriage?

Boudreaux said, "Dat's easy, we go out on two romantic dinners every week.

She goes Tuesdays
and I go Thursdays."

M ... is for the million things she gave me,
O ... means only that she's growing old,
T ... is for the tears she shed to save me,
H ... is for her heart of purest gold;
E ... is for her eyes, with love-light shining,
R ... means right, and right she'll always be.

Put them all together, they spell "MOTHER,"
A word that means the world to me.
