Grand Knight's Report
 My Brother Knights,

July has been a full month for me, recovering from a long Oregon Trail adventure, getting yard and garden back in shape and trying to get organized in my new job as Grand Knight.

I want to thank all Officers and Committee Chairman for remaining in your positions. I would especially like to thank Gregg Pellegrin who has been willing to help me get started. Thank God for all the talent and experience we have in our Counsel. I will welcome all of your advice and counseling to get this job done. Thank you in advance for all of your suggestions and help.

Vivat Jesus;
Thomas Guidroz

What an exciting first month! From the beginning of a new year to the end of an old debt, there was so much love and laughter going around and more than a few tears of joy. Annunziata is truly alive!! Of course this was made possible by our outstanding Fr. Mike, Russell Duet, and the committee; and we all thank them from the bottom of our hearts. I hope they all get a much deserved break...

I hope to see many of you at the ladies social eat out at Dave's and hope some of you will also join us at the state meeting this month.

Again, if anyone has any suggestions or ideas for the coming year, please feel free to share. We are always looking for ways to move forward and support the knights and our church. Remember that our meetings are the third Wednesday of each month with rosary at 6:30 and meeting immediately after.

I hope to see some new faces with us so if you have a friend who is interested in joining, ask them! If they don't have a family member who is a knight, all they need is you to sponsor them!

Yours in Christ,
Jean Naquin

Women of the Bible

Sarah "Mother of Nations"

Sarah was the wife of Abraham, as well as being his half-sister, the daughter of his father Terah (Genesis 20:12). The Talmud identifies Sarai with Iscah, daughter of Abraham's deceased brother Haran (Genesis 11:29), so that Sarah turns out to be the niece of Abraham and the sister of Lot and Milcah. She was considered beautiful to the point that Abraham feared that when they were near more powerful rulers she would be taken away and given to another man. Twice he purposefully identified her as being only his sister so that he would be "treated well" for her sake. It is apparent that she remained attractive into her later years. Despite her great beauty, she was barren for an unknown reason. She was originally called "Sarai" which is translated "my princess." Later she was called "Sarah" i.e., princess." In Biblical times, the changing of one's name was significant and used to symbolize the binding of a covenant. In this case, God promised to put an end to her barrenness and give her a child (Isaac).

Sarah was not a weak, spineless, overly dependent, empty-headed woman. Her parents called her Sarai, and names had meaning in the ancient biblical world. Hers meant "princess." It may have described her great beauty, which is referred to twice in the inspired record (Gen. 12:11, 14). It probably described, as well, her cultured upbringing, her fine education, her stately charm, and her gracious manner. When God changed her name to Sarah, he did not remove the princely connotation, but rather added the further dignity of motherhood. She is called in that context "a mother of nations" (Gen. 17:15-16).

Our guarantees set us apart

Knights of Columbus life insurance offers something precious few other financial products can – guarantees. As long as you pay your premiums, the policy proceeds will be there for your beneficiaries should something happen to you. We call that peace of mind, and that's what we offer with our Shield for Life.

We guarantee the cash value in your whole life policies will be there.

We guarantee the rates on your term insurance.

We guarantee our retirement products will provide a stream of income when you need it.

On top of those product guarantees, I guarantee that I will offer professional, high-quality service that you would expect from our organization.

And you don't have to take my word for it. Standard & Poor's and AM Best, two outside ratings companies, continue to give the Order their highest marks for strength and security. Standard & Poor's states that its "AAA" rating is based upon the following strengths: extremely strong capital, very strong competitive position, extremely strong liquidity and historically strong profitability. We've earned this rating for 18 consecutive years!

I would suggest that a principal reason that we were able to achieve those accolades is because we remain steadfastly committed to the vision of Father Michael J. McGivney by providing life insurance by brother Knights for brother Knights.

That commitment is an essential core value of the Knights of Columbus, and our core values permeate all levels of our organization. These principles for marketing are summed up by our Golden Rule: "In all my professional relationships, I pledge myself to the following rule of conduct: I shall, in light of all conditions surrounding those I serve, render that service which, under the same circumstances, I would apply to myself."

Give me a call today to discuss how our products can bring that peace of mind to you and your family.

The Funny Bone

'Is that Jesus over there?'

An Italian in a wheel chair entered a restaurant one afternoon and asked the waitress for a cup of coffee. The Italian looked across the restaurant and asked, 'Is that Jesus sitting over there?'

The waitress nodded 'yes,' so the Italian told her to give Jesus a cup of coffee on him.

The next patron to come in was an Irishman with a hunched back. He shuffled over to a booth, painfully sat down, and asked the Waitress for a cup of hot tea. He also glanced across the restaurant and asked,

'Is that Jesus over there?'

The waitress nodded, so the Irishman said to give Jesus a cup of hot tea, 'My treat.'

The third patron to come into the restaurant was a Redneck on crutches. He hobbled over to a booth, sat down and hollered,

'Hey there, sweet thang. How's about gettin' me a cold glass of Coke!' He, too, looked across the restaurant and asked, 'Is that God's boy over there?'

The waitress once more nodded, so the Redneck said to give Jesus a cold glass of Coke, 'On my bill.'

As Jesus got up to leave, he passed by the Italian, touched him and said, 'For your kindness, you are healed.' The Italian felt the strength come back into his legs, got up, and danced a jig out the door.

Jesus also passed by the Irishman, touched him and said, 'For your kindness, you are healed.' The Irishman felt his back straightening up, and he raised his hands, praised the Lord and did a series of back flips out the door.

Then Jesus walked towards the Redneck. The Redneck jumped up and yelled,

'Don't touch me...I'm drawin' disability.'
