Grand Knight's Report

One of our own High School students made us very proud of her achievements. Hope Hunter is not only our Youth Representative on the Church Council but is a contender for the Catholic Youth Leadership Award scholarship. She was also nominated for the Teenager of the year award from Ellender MHS. She has also won the American Legion Award of the year. You go girl!

Our Christmas Fund raiser was a success. Thanks to all participants, especially Kervin Voisin who chaired the event.

We are starting to see old members returning to the KC meetings. It was good to have Tommy Guidry back with us. Welcome, Tommy!

We have a Valentines Day Dinner scheduled for 6:00 PM February 12, 2012 at the Piccadilly Cafeteria meeting room. 'Hope to see all of you there.

Happy Valentine's Day! St. Valentine is the patron saint of love, young people, and happy marriages so here's wishing everyone love, youth, and happiness. I wanted to thank the auxiliary for supporting our church in a $700 donation towards the new phone system. This is the largest donation the auxiliary has ever made - I'm so proud of everyone for stepping up when our parish needs us!

I hope to see many of you at the Knight's Valentine's Day dinner.

Yours in Christ,

Jean Naquin

February Judith

Judith is a wealthy and beautiful young widow living in a hilltop town called Bethulia. During a siege of her town, she undertakes a daring and sexually ambiguous mission to save her people from annihilation. She kills the general of the enemy forces by hacking off his head as he lies in a drunken stupor. Her story is a variant on the David and Goliath story, where a seemingly weak person overcomes a person of superior strength by calling on God's help and using cunning and intelligence.

The Book of Judith was never intended as factual history - it is more like fiction with a theological message. Supposedly set in 587BC it was in fact written much later, and many of the details in the story are incorrect - for example, Nebuchadnezzar was a Babylonian, but the story presents him as ruler of the Assyrians.

The Book of Judith is not included in the Protestant or Jewish Scriptures, perhaps because of its sexual content - Sigmund Freud said that beheading was symbolic castration. Perhaps readers found its irony hard to swallow: Judith is a virtuous woman who murders a defenseless man, and the basic message of her story is that the end justifies the means.

Oddly enough, the Book of Judith is far more religious in content than the Book of Esther, which is in all Bibles. You'll see this if you read Chapter 8, where Judith challenges the town officials for trying to make God in their own image. It's one of the best descriptions of what God might or might not be that has ever been written.

The Repairman

Wanda's dishwasher quit working so she called in a repairman. Since she had to go to work the next day, she told the repairman, "I'll leave the key under the mat. Fix the dishwasher, leave the bill on the counter, and I'll mail you a check. Oh, by the way don't worry about my dog Spike. He won't bother you."

"But, whatever you do, do NOT, under ANY circumstances, talk to my parrot!"

"I MUST STRESS TO YOU: DO NOT TALK TO MY PARROT!!!"

When the repairman arrived at Wanda's apartment the following day, he discovered the biggest, meanest looking dog he has ever seen. But, just as she had said, the dog just lay there on the carpet watching the repairman go about his work.

The parrot, however, drove him nuts the whole time with his incessant yelling, cursing and name calling.

Finally the repairman couldn't contain himself any longer and yelled,

"Shut up, you stupid, ugly bird!"

To which the parrot replied,

"Get him, Spike!"

See? Men just don't listen!

Insurance check-up for 2012

An insurance check-up can be as important as an annual physical. Unlike many other products, you don't just need money to obtain life insurance, long-term care or disability income insurance. You also need good health, and no one knows when your health could change.

Did you take time out of your schedule last year to meet with your field agent? If you did, thank you for seeing him and helping secure your financial future. Your agent will be in touch with you to schedule your annual review to verify that everything is heading in the right direction. He'll make sure that if your goals and budget have changed, your plan still works for you.

If you didn't have a meeting with him last year, I hope you will answer his invitation this year. It's a wise idea to have an expert look at your finances. Schedule some time to visit with your professional Knights of Columbus insurance agent, and he'll provide an insurance check-up that will quickly identify any gaps in your family's life insurance program.

Did I mention the check-up is free of charge? When was the last time you received something for free that could be providing value to you and your family for generations? And he'll come to your house when it fits your schedule.
