Another great Easter Egg Hunt, thanks to Gregg Pellegrin, our faithful and loyal Knights and our dedicated Ladie's Auxiliary. We boiled and dyed sixty-two dozen eggs, hiding them in the mosquito infested grass. The children found all but five eggs! Our first assistant, Mai-Lin Marcel, was again the star egg colorer and hider of the event. The Easter Bunny Allen Trahan was a big hit on Easter Sunday giving out chocolate bunnies.

Our funds are getting low. Don't forget to remind friends and neighbors of our Shrimp Fettuccini Fund -Raiser on May 20, 2012. If you need more tickets to sell, contact Vince Naquin. We will need everyone to help in selling tickets, cooking and serving.

At our May meeting we will open nomination for officers. If you would like to be an officer or nominate someone please attend this meeting.

Vivat Jesus;

Thomas Guidroz

Religious Seminarian Vocations Program

Annunziata Council recently donated $500.00 to Cody Chatagnier seminarian to help pay his personal expenses. Cody grew up in Chauvin and is presently attending Notre Dame. As some of you might already know a seminarian can not work while he is attending school which makes it hard for them to pay for the everyday things they need. Through the Knights of Columbus and the RSVP program this allows a seminarian to furnish the extras they need and still attend college.

Women of the Bible

According to the Gospel of Luke, Elisabeth was a descendant of Aaron the high priest. She and her husband Zacharias were "righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless" (), but childless. While ministering in the , Zacharias was visited by the angel Gabriel.

Zacharias doubted "whereby" he could know this since both he and his wife were very old. The angel identified himself as Gabriel and said he would be "dumb, and not able to speak" until the words were fulfilled, because he did not believe. When the days of his ministry were complete, he returned to his house.

According to the account, the angel Gabriel was then sent to Nazareth in Galilee to her "cousin" Mary, then a virgin, espoused to a man called Joseph, and informed her that she would conceive by the Holy Ghost and bring forth a son to be called Jesus. After she was also informed that her "cousin Elisabeth" had begun her sixth month of pregnancy, she travelled to "Hebron, in the hill country of Judah", to visit (Luke 1:26-40).

Matthew Henry comments, "Mary knew that Elisabeth was with child, but it does not appear that Elisabeth had been told anything of her cousin Mary's being designed for the mother of the Messiah; and therefore what knowledge she appears to have had of it must have come by a revelation, which would be a great encouragement to Mary." After Mary heard Elisabeth's blessing, she spoke the words now known as the Magnificat (Luke 1:46-55). Again, Henry notes that "it was here, in Hebron, that circumcision was first instituted", and it was here that the LORD turned Abram's name to Abraham when he gave him the covenant of circumcision.

That was the last mention of Elisabeth, who is not mentioned in any other chapter in the Bible. The chapter continues with the prophecy of Zacharias, (known as the Benedictus,) and ends with the note that John "grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in

Funny Bone

The Mirror

After living in the remote swamplands of Louisiana all his life, An old cajun decided it was time to visit the big city. Stopping in one of the stores he picks up a mirror and looks in it. Not ever having seen one before, he remarked at the image staring back at him, "How about that!

He bought the mirror thinking it was a picture of his daddy, but on the way home he remembered his wife didn't like his father.

So he hung it in the boat shed, and every morning before leaving to run his traps he would go there and look at it.

His wife began to get suspicious of these many trips to the boat shed.

One day after her husband left, she searched the shed and found the mirror. As she looked into the glass, she fumed,

"So that's the ugly woman he's runnin' around with."

So Boudreaux asks Thibodaux :

"Why dem Scuba divers always fall back ways off dem boats?"

To which Thibodaux replies:

"You dumb Coon If dey fell forwards dey'd still be in de' boat."

Four parts of retirement: Phase One

In the next four articles, I would like to discuss a goal that's on many workers' radar: retirement. To some, retirement is the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow or the reward after a long career. It's a time to relax, take up a hobby and enjoy life. Whether retirement is just around the next corner or if you have another 30 years to go, it's never too soon or too late to start planning or revise that plan.

Some experts suggest that there are four phases of retirement: protection, accumulation, income de-accumulation and care. In this article, I will tackle protection.

Protection is the base element of any well-founded financial plan; the base of the pyramid, for example. Without basic protection against premature death or the inability to earn income due to disability, the remainder of the pyramid collapses. If you own mutual funds and die without life insurance, those funds will be needed to pay final expenses (collapsing), perhaps at the most inopportune time (after a market correction). If you own mutual funds and lose your ability to earn income due to disability and are without paycheck protection, those funds will be needed in order to pay living expenses (collapsing), perhaps at the most inopportune time (is there ever an opportune time?).

So, basic protection is a must. The good thing is that this protection is offered by the Knights of Columbus. Our whole life products and disability income insurance are designed with this goal in mind. For example, our Life Paid Up at 65 plan is perfect for this purpose because premier payments end right when retirement is upon you. There are many other options that I can discuss with you that will fit your needs and your budget.

A newer addition to our product portfolio, disability income insurance protects your most valuable asset: your ability to work and earn money. Plans can be customized and are available to cover many professions, from farmers to lawyers.

Once you've established the proper protection, the next phase is accumulation of cash, which I will discuss in a future article.
